ROY D. BLUNT
SECRETARY OF STATE

Fellow Missourians:

I'm pleased to present this edition of the Missouri Roster, 1987-1988. The Roster is one of the most popular and useful publications produced by the Office of Secretary of State. It contains the names, titles, addresses and phone numbers of key personnel in all areas of state and county government.

As in previous editions, we also have included the results of last November's general election for legislative, judicial and statewide offices and issues.

The Roster proves that Missouri government is more than just agencies and departments and titles. The personnel entrusted with the operations of governement—the men and women whose names appear in this directory—share a common goal in serving the citizens of our state. When you have the need to contact any of these public servants, I'm confident that they will do their utmost to be helpful and courteous.

We in the Secretary of State's office believe in the motto of the State of Missouri: "Let the welfare of the people be the supreme law." I'm certain you'll find that other government agencies share this spirit of dedication and concern for the common good.

Thanks for your interest in Missouri.

Best regards,

Roy D. Blunt
